TELEGRAPHIC.

Chicago, September 21.—The Inter-Ocean's Springfield, Tennessee, special says: Sometime ago a white man was found dead in this vicinity. He was a bachelor, of considerable property, and lived at Saddle Creek. He was not a politician, but a planter of good character, and was undoubtedly murdered by some highwayman for booty. Nevertheless the Democrats of this section took advantage of the occurrence for political effect and soon arrested seven of the colored Republicans, and leaders of the best men and those of most political influence, and charged them with the crime. They were sent to jail and tortured by all the methods known to the inquisition to induce them to confess their guilt. They were whipped, hung by the toes and thumbs and would have died under the torture if they had not been men of extraordinary constitutions. Of course no confession could be obtained and no evidence against any of the prisoners was secured by the prosecuting attorney, who by the way was a Democrat. The men who instigated this outrage endeavored to have the trial postponed until after election as it was very apparent they would be acquitted, but being unable to secure a postponement they organized a mob of 150 men and attacked the jail at night and lynched two of the colored men. The remainder will be held for trial. The object of the lynching was to terrify the colored men and it has been accomplished. While the Democrats here all deplore the tendency to give political color to the outrage and attribute the lynching to the public feeling among the whites that crime ought to be punished without waiting for legal delay, the colored people all understand what was meant by it and have taken warning. The colored men lynched were respectable, law-abiding citizens and active Republicans. Alexander H. Byrd writes from Eutaw Green county, showing that in the precinct from which Mr. Byrd writes there were seven hundred and thirty-eight votes cast. According to the count by Democratic judges the Democratic ticket had a majority but now come forward six hundred and twenty-one men who make affidavit that they voted the Republican ticket which would give an absolute Republican majority in the precinct of over five hundred. Mr. Wallace, the U. S. Commissioner who came from Mobile to take the affidavits referred to above was first grossly insulted by some prominent Democrats and afterwards five rifle shots were fired at him and his friends as they sat under a tree in the court house yard.

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 21.—Judge Kraus, John O. Broadhead and John F. Phillips, the commissioners to report on the statutes of the government lands of the Indian Territory will report to a citizens meeting to-night that the jurisdiction of this vast territory was not acquired from the Indians but by purchase of the United States from France. The Indians never had a title to the country but simply occupy it under a contract and by permission from the United States. The government has by various so-called treaties, assigned to the Indians throughout the country certain lands, but has never granted them free hold or free use of the land in any case, nor can the government by treaty give them the right to occupy in perpetuity in fact. According to the law of the nation, treaties can only be made between civilized people or nations. The president cannot will or dispose of lands to the Indians by treaty; Congress alone has this power. The treaties were simply agreements to allow the Indians to cultivate the land under the existing acts of congress. Persons may enter pre-emptions and homestead claims on any of the lands not reserved by the government for other purposes. There can be no valid objections to settlement on these lands.

Portland, Sept. 21.—The Greenback convention to nominate electors met this afternoon. Four hundred and sixty-five delegates were present. Chas. A. White was chosen president. He denounced Gen. Tifflin and said an understanding was entered into to divide the electoral ticket and urged carrying it out. S. D. Hobson presented resolutions endorsing the action of the State committee recommending a fusion with the Democrats.

Chicago, September 21.—The Democrats of the Third District this afternoon nominated Perry N. Smith, Jr.

mending a fusion with the Democrats. J. B. Chase amid great excitement protested. Elliott King moved to accept the report and resolutions as to nominating a joint electoral ticket. Chase made a motion to amend by nominating seven straight greenbackers. This was received with applause and hisses. The speaker made an appeal for a fair hearing and argued against a fusion. There were thousands of greenbackers in the State who voted for the rest of the ticket with Plaiside who will not vote for Fusion electors. He protested against giving away the future greenback party for four greenback electors. It was a greenback candidate and platform that carried the State, Rev. All-ah Strout, F. M. Plaiside and others advocated a fusion, after which the previous question was carried and a resolution to fuse adopted, although amid considerable opposition.

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 21.—The Times says the Democratic trepidation in Indiana has changed to hilarious confidence as it is presumed that the Supreme Court which meets to-day will not reverse its decision overturning the Constitutional amendments changing the State election from October to November. That the advisability of doing this was seriously contemplated at one time when the chances of Democratic success in October seemed more remote than at present there cannot be any doubt. One of the justices of the court says the motion to reverse will be considered early and disposed of before many days have elapsed.

Boston, Mass., Sept. 21.—The Journal, of Augusta, Maine, telegraphs as follows: Our footing by counties gives, Davis, 73,579; Plaiside, 73,389; scattering, 475. Davis over Plaiside 190. There are seven towns or plantations to be heard from, besides an uncertainty about the vote of the towns yet to be received in determining the result. There is probably an inaccuracy in some of the figures already given also questions about other inaccuracies which appear in the returns, which with the close vote render the result so doubtful that it will only be determined by the official canvass of the returns at the opening of the Legislature.

Corning, Ohio, Sept. 21.—One of the militia officers found a suspicious character in camp who upon being pressed for particulars said in the of battle Sunday one miner was killed outright and eight wounded, of which one will die. The man who was killed was buried on the way home by his associates. Said miners expect help from some quarter and intend making a general attack on the troops as soon as the answers arrive and that they will commence operations by turning the colored miners. All went to work to-day.

Portland, Me., Sept. 21.—All but one town, Sheridan, have sent in the returns, proving a plurality of 179 for Davis, less 20 which Sheridan gave the Fusionists last year, but partial comparison made with the returns made to the secretary of state show errors enough in telegraphic returns to give a clean plurality to Plaiside. These returns will have to be compared with the returns of the secretary of state in order to establish correction, and as soon as the secretary is heard from the comparison will be telegraphed.

Lancaster, O., Sept. 21.—General Ewing telegraphs to his wife here from Charleston, Arizona under date of Sept. 19th, that b-ing homeward bound he was taken down on the 16th with an attack of malarial fever and that the doctor had ordered him to Santa Monica, Cal., for the benefit of sea air and has interdicted all business and politics.

London, Sept. 21.—A Times Paris correspondent says: The real cause of De Freycinet's fall was his foreign policy and it was resolved upon the day he opposed Gen. Thomassin's mission to Greece, as also more definitely on his replying to the disquieting Cherbourg programme.

New York, September 21.—The Post says it is believed that the party in favor of the amicable adjustment with the American Union has control of the Western Union telegraph company, and it is not surprising if Vanderbilt sides with this party.

Chicago, September 21.—The Democrats of the Third District this afternoon nominated Perry N. Smith, Jr.

—May heaven speed the time when there shall be indicated some sure unfailing route from the town to the depot. If you go the way to-day that you did yesterday you have to climb over freight cars and so it goes.

—The prize fight set for yesterday did not take place, therefore the stakes of $2,000 a side were neither lost nor won. The contestants got into a dispute concerning the rules of the fight and finally agreed to drop the whole affair.

—Large crowds of people were assembled at Raton, yesterday, to see the prize fight between the Denver hero and the Leadville giant. Such fellows should be arrested and taught that when they wish to pommel each other noses they must go to some other community than New Mexico.

—Charlie Glead, who is in charge of the advertising department of the Santa Fe road, returned on Friday from Colorado and New Mexico, where he has been to collect matter for a new and attractive advertising document. Charlie thinks the neighborhood of perpetual snow preferable to the dusty climate he now inhabits.—Commonwealth.

—A. M. Jones writes us from the White Oaks that everything is in a flourishing condition in that camp now. Thirty new houses are in course of construction, one of which will cost $1,500. He says twenty capitalists had come into the place during the three days prior to the date of his letter. This is encouraging news and shows that the White Oaks camp is being built on a firmer foundation than ever before.

—The school house and surroundings on the hill, prevent the pictures of the land we used to live in, at recess time. Happy boys and girls, may fate protect you from going so far west of here as to be a tenderfoot. You do not know his sorrows. It takes five weeks to inspire confidence enough to get credit, and his "pile" runs out at the end of three. He must live in a little room all by himself and eat soggy biscuit with every one else.

—One of the La Junta and Santa Fe mail agents informs us that the people of this city will frequently put letters in the mail box, whether the train is going the way the letter is wanted to go or not. Sometimes letters addressed to parties in Las Vegas will be carried to the depot and there deposited in the car letter box. What people are thinking about is hard to tell. They must take the mail agents as city carriers. When letters are intended for the west they should be put on the train going west, and when intended for the east, care should be taken that they are put on the train going east, as otherwise much time is lost in their reaching the destination intended for them by the writer, as the route agents do not exchange mails but take them on to some general office.
